

Open Data Policy

Effective Date: [2024-07-15]

1. Introduction

Welcome to SOMOSATLANTICO. We are committed to promoting transparency and accessibility by providing open data to the public. This Open Data Policy outlines our practices regarding the collection, usage, sharing, and licensing of data available on our website.

2. Data Collection

We collect a variety of data to enhance the services we provide:

Geographical Data: Location coordinates, maps, and geographical information.

Statistical Data: Aggregated statistics on various topics relevant to our services.

User-Contributed Data: Information and data submitted by users for sharing with the public.

3. Why is Your Data Important?

Our open data can be used for a variety of purposes, including:

- Supporting research and innovation
- Enabling data-driven decision-making
- Supporting the Blue economy
- Supporting Ocean literacy and education
- Promoting transparency and accountability
- Providing insights and analysis on various topics

4. Data Sharing

IPMA is committed to the free exchange of information and making data available to the public under the following conditions:

Open Access: Data is freely accessible to anyone who wishes to use it.

Attribution: Users must give appropriate credit to [SOMOSATLANTICO] when using the data, as outlined in the metadata.

Non-Commercial Use: Data may be used for non-commercial purposes unless otherwise specified and/or authorized by the data owner.

5. Licensing

Open data are provided under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0), which allows users to:

Share: Copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format

Adapt: Remix, transform, and build upon the material

6. Data Quality and Integrity

We aim to guarantee the accuracy and reliability of the data we provide. However, we cannot guarantee that the data is free from errors or omissions. Users are encouraged to verify the data independently before using it.
